

Network Assessment Services

C2 Company provides a detailed comprehensive network assessment package utilizing industry proven tools coupled with C2 Company's years of expertise and knowledge of industry best practices, networks and network security. Our service can be customized to fit the needs of any size network.

C2 Company uses proven techniques to assess the network with the goal of providing maximum insight of the target network; thus providing IT personnel or CTOs the ability to make decisions regarding network security or company compliance based upon a full understanding of their existing environment.

Why Perform a Network Assessment?

Customers who have chosen to utilize C2 Company's Network Assessment Services typically have had one or more of the following needs, requirements, or 'pain-points':

- Unknown network issues, or specific problems on the network
- Lack of network visibility
- Lack of accurate network documentation
- Acquisition or merging of an unknown network
- The need to assist an overburdened IT staff
- Cloud computing considerations
- Virtualization studies
- The need to streamline troubleshooting efforts
- Adherence to best practices
- New business and/or technical initiatives
- Regulatory compliance

Network Assessment Services

Some Benefits of the C2 Company Network Assessment Services include greater:

Manageability

- Improve Manageability to reduce overall IT administration costs
- Improve perception of network
- Reduce repair times

Business Scalability

- Provides insight into peak status of network
 - Performance, reliability, speed
- Employee growth
- Network growth

Reliability

- Resulting in greater network uptime which would improve
 - Greater uptime of applications
 - Business service quality
 - Uptime of business services
 - Employee productivity
 - Customer services

Network Interoperability

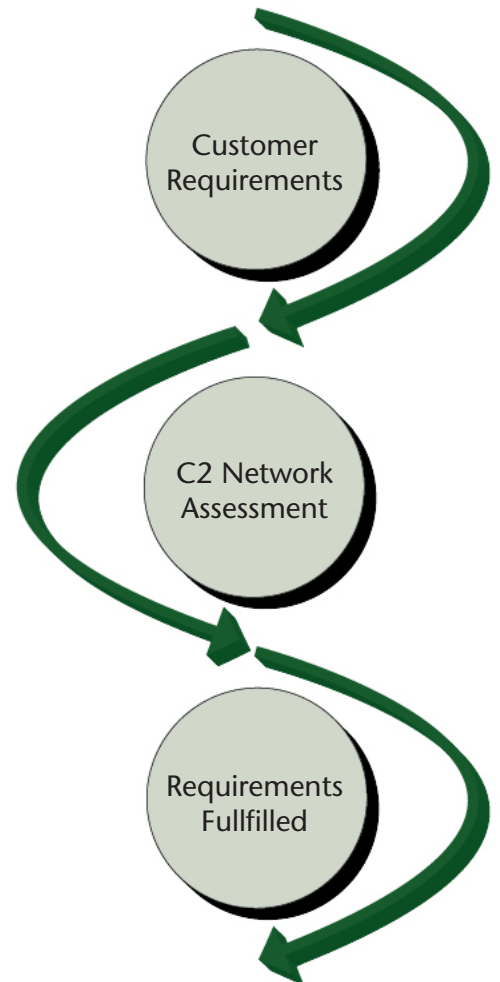

- Provide for easier mergers of acquired networks
 - Documents and details networks to be merged
 - Ease of estimating costs for network mergers
- Provides for greater insight into post-merger recommended changes to network

Recoverability

- Can provide insight into where to focus disaster and business recovery efforts

Network Infrastructure Security

- Provides insight into potential security breaches
- Standardization with current best-practices
- Provides greater understanding of overall security of network

Why Choose C2 Company?

C2 Company has over 20 years experience in building and troubleshooting networks and are experts in network security.

Our team of certified experts have designed, built and managed thousands of complex networks.

